

Title: Citizenship Class Volunteer (Online)

Supervisor: Annie Dimitras Position Title: Citizenship Class Volunteer (Online)

Positions Available: 6 Quarter Begins: June / July

About ReWA: Refugee Women's Alliance (ReWA) is an award-winning, nationally recognized nonprofit that provides holistic services to help refugee and immigrant women and families thrive. In 33 years of work with multi-cultural communities, we have refined our services to most effectively promote integration and self-sufficiency. All of our services are designed to quickly and effectively stabilize clients, promote acculturation, increase language proficiency, and improve employability.

Primary Responsibilities

- Assisting adult students one-on-one and in small groups with a variety of activities related to English and US Civics, including: worksheets, reading, games, and speaking activities
- Providing classroom support to the Citizenship Instructor, such as helping set up, model, and facilitate activities/games
- Conducting mock citizenship interviews and providing individualized feedback to students
- Providing feedback and input on lesson activities to the Citizenship Instructor to help improve classes

Preferred Skills and Experience

- Experience teaching or tutoring, especially ESL
- Experience working with diverse communities, especially English language learners
- Personal experience with the US naturalization process
- Interest in immigration
- Patient and reliable

Time Commitment:

- 2 - 3.5 hours / week (depends on class)

Location & Availability

- Tuesdays from 3-4:45pm
- Thursdays from 3-4:45pm

Benefits

- Make a difference in the lives of your immigrant neighbors by helping them become US citizens and secure all the rights that come with citizenship
- Gain experience working with English language learners
- Become an expert in US history and civics!