"At ReWA, you feel free. You feel at home."

JOIN US

to fund and sustain ReWA programs that enable immigrant and refugee families to thrive and practice agency and self-sufficiency over their lives in a new country.

- When: October 23, 2021
- Why: To benefit the programs of ReWA

OUR AUDIENCE

Community members, civic leaders, elected officials, local business and corporate leadership partners will attend the 2021 Annual Gala in support of ReWA.

YOUR IMPACT

- Funds ESL classes and job training to put immigrants and refugees on the path to independence
- Ensures access to mental health support to help immigrants and refugees navigate health, financial, childcare and education challenges during the pandemic, etc
- Empowers elementary and high school students academically and socially, especially while they navigate virtual or hybrid classrooms during the pandemic

YOUR INVESTMENT

- Highlights your corporate community partnership and commitment to underserved communities
- Identifies your agency as a philanthropic leader in the community
- Provides an opportunity to build new connections throughout the community and deepen your networks
- Increases your visibility through various marketing opportunities with ReWA, strengthening brand loyalty
- Provides community engagement opportunities for your employees throughout the year

Youth often play a central role at the Gala.

ReWA has been a part of the immigrant and refugee community since 1985.

“When I came to the U.S. I needed to learn English, find a job & housing, but with my ReWA case manager’s help, at least I didn’t feel alone.”

-Kani, ReWA client

MISSION

Refugee Women’s Alliance (ReWA) is a non-profit, multi-ethnic organization that promotes inclusion, independence, personal leadership, and strong communities by providing refugee and immigrant women and their families with culturally and linguistically appropriate services.

ReWA advocates for social justice, public policy changes, and equal access to services while respecting cultural values and the right to self-determination.

ABOUT REWA

Our services are delivered in over 50 languages, and are designed to make a long-lasting impact in our clients’ lives and help them thrive in the Puget Sound community.

In 2020, ReWA served more than 11,000 clients*, on their path to self-sufficiency through:

- Employment & Vocational Training
- Early Childhood Education
- Behavioral Health Counseling
- ESL Classes
- Citizenship Classes
- Youth Programs
- Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Programs
- Parent Education & Family Support
