Job Announcement

POSITION: Grants Manager
REPORTS TO: Chief Development Officer
STATUS AND COMPENSATION: Full-time non-exempt

REWA SUMMARY

ReWA promotes inclusion, independence, personal leadership, and strong communities by providing refugee and immigrant women and their families with culturally and linguistically appropriate services. ReWA advocates for social justice, public policy changes and equal access to services while respecting cultural values and the right to self-determination. Our clients come from more than 70 countries across the globe, including Africa, Southeast Asia, and the Middle East. ReWA provides 10 wrap-around social services to every member of a refugee or immigrant woman’s family, from infant to senior. These services, delivered in more than 50 languages and dialects, are designed to make a long-lasting impact in our clients’ lives and help them thrive in the Puget Sound community.

ROLE SUMMARY

Refugee Women’s Alliance is hiring a Grants Manager to manage the agency’s grant prospecting, writing, and reporting activities. This is a regular full-time position that will work closely with ReWA’s ED, in tandem with ReWA’s part-time Grants Manager and report to ReWA’s Chief Development Officer.

On an annual basis, the Grant Writing Team solicits upwards of $1.5 million in public and private funding through over 70 proposals. The Grants Manager will be responsible for researching public and private grant opportunities, writing letters of inquiry and grant proposals, and managing grant reporting. The position will work across the organization, taking direct guidance from ReWA’s ED and collaborating with program directors and finance staff to prioritize, craft and submit proposals.

ROLE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Gain a strong understanding of each ReWA program, the nuances between them, and the target populations served; learn the strongest ways to communicate ReWA’s attributes and effectiveness to funders, both for the agency as a whole and each program

- Partner with ED to conduct research for prospective funding opportunities and identify new institutional and corporate funding sources; assess RFPs and other grant solicitations for their fit with the agency’s mission and programs
- Partner with ED to prioritize and write proposals of all lengths and to all types of funders (local government, state of Washington, federal government, and corporate and philanthropic foundations); gather information from program staff, finance staff and database (future) to articulate goals, activities, anticipated outcomes, successes and challenges, etc., to funders; edit writing material provided by program staff in order to produce coherent and cohesive grant proposals
- Ensure regular and timely communication with internal stakeholders (ED, programs teams, finance team, etc.) around progress towards grants submissions
- Partner with ED to ensure communications with programs on progress towards grants objectives achievement and/or gap analysis and ideation for lagging results; collaborate with ED to proactively and ongoingly monitor compliance with grants objectives and deadlines
- Maintain a grants calendar with the dates and other information of upcoming grant applications and master list of grants awards, outcomes and compliance requirements; contribute to accurate and updated database record keeping
- Maintain grants submission materials and grants documents in centralized files
- Support part-time grant writer in writing and submitting proposals by serving as editor, troubleshooter and sounding board for their work
- Cultivate and steward relationships with current institutional funders to ensure continued and expanded giving; support leadership in maintaining external relationships with new and current funders
- Participate in department and agency meetings and serve as a core member of development team

ROLE QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor’s degree or equivalent practical experience required
- Minimum five years of grant writing experience
- Demonstrated success writing successful proposals to local government, state government, private and corporate foundations, the federal government and King County area human services agencies
- Proven research abilities, including gathering and interpreting data; funder prospecting experience desirable
- Exceptional writing, editing and copy editing skills; excellent communication skills, both in person and on phone, verbal and written
- Experience envisioning and deploying a strong institutional giving cultivation and stewardship strategy
- Ability to write concise narratives that tell stories with data; interest in the experiences, needs, and resiliency of the local immigrant and refugee community
